RECREATIONS

PROGRAM AT THE EMPIRE.

"The Cowherd Millionaire" gives a very interesting description of a cowboy, roping steers and shooting up the town cowboy fashion. Then the millionaire owner of the ranch takes the boys to the city and shows them the time of their lives. "A Brother's Wrong" is a love story of two brothers loving the same woman, and the plot makes it intensely interesting.

TRAGIC STORY AT ART.

"Pools of Fate" at the Art Theater is a story of a hunter who while on a river falls from a boat and is rescued at the critical moment by another hunter. A strong friendship grows up between these men and when they part it is with an expressed desire from both that they meet again for another summer's sport. But fate interferes and their second meeting is a tragic one. The second hunter while spending a vacation at a popular resort the following year meets a woman and falls in love with her. She professes to return his love, but claims she cannot marry him without eloping. The two elope and during the honeymoon, they are discovered by the first hunter whose life was saved from drowning the year previous. The woman is his wife who has deserted him for the sinner of his life. The husband had sworn to kill the man who had taken his wife but instead takes his own, while the second hunter drives the woman from his presence.

Sergeant Barry of the N. G. H. was much astonished this morning when he was interfered with by a police officer when he attempted to tie a splint to the leg of Kaluna, the Hawaiian who was injured in front of E. O. Hall's. The police officer, according to Barry, wished to take the man away without first aid being given him. Barry objected to this, and eventually gained his point.

MAN BADLY CUT AT BARBER'S POINT

Yesterday afternoon J. Schult, a carpenter who has been working at Barber's Point, met with a painful accident which may lead to serious results. The man was working with a chisel when in some way the tool slipped and inflicted a long, deep cut in his leg above the knee-cap.

The man was at once attended to by some fellow workmen, and they did all in their power to staunch the bleeding, but with little success. As it was seen that Schult was badly injured, he was hurried in to the city as soon as possible, and a doctor summoned to attend him. This morning the unfortunate man is much better and appears to be recovering from the loss of blood sustained through the accident.

AUTO SPEEDERS ASK FOR WEEK'S DELAY

will come up for hearing on next Tuesday.
George C. Beckley Jr., was the only one out of the assembled bunch of auto owners who waived trial by pleading guilty to the charge of exceeding the speed limit. Beckley cheerfully complied with the request of the court that he contribute twenty-five dollars and the costs, totalling twenty-eight dollars. He counted out the coin and appeared to be well satisfied with his bargain.

F. Lewis pleaded not guilty to fast driving and on the witness stand swore that he had just dropped a load of passengers at Alakea street when he was supposed to be breaking the speed ordinance down on King street near the Asylum road.

Lewis also testified that there were two machines of the same number in the city; he stated that the second 311 was in the garage and that the other one was running around the town.
Officer Scully gave evidence to the effect that Lewis passed him at 5:27 o'clock down by the Asylum road, and that the machine covered a measured distance of 330 feet in 11 seconds. Scully was certain that the machine was Lewis' and that the timing was correct. Judge Andrade, after listening to the evidence decided to give a decision on Saturday morning next.

CHINESE ALOHA TO EXTREME CRUELTY SUNG PAO TUNG TO ANIMALS

Consular Representative Aged, Worn-Out Horse Left By Steamer Asia Is Forced Along Street

With much fan-fare and enthusiastic demonstration upon the part of a large contingent of Chinese business and professional men as well as numerous friends from American residents in Honolulu, T. K. Sung Pao Tung, who for several years past has acted as Secretary of the local Chinese consulate, took his departure for China by the Pacific Mail liner Asia this morning.

The sailing of the Asia produced an animated scene at the new Alakea street wharf.
Despite the absence of the Hawaiian Band, considerable melody of a peculiar and original type was more or less rampant there.

A course of thorough passengers had provided themselves with axes and flutes and for a half hour before the Asia's lines were cast off the wharf, the musical team kept the crowd good natured.

The friends of the departing Chinese consular secretary vied with each other in heaping an additional burden of floral tributes upon the defenseless neck and shoulders of Sung Pao Tung. He was a veritable flower garden as he walked on the gangway to the steamer docks.

The Asia, being a foreign bottom, left no cargo, and but a few lay over passengers.

A number of Japanese also departed for Dia Nippon by the Pacific Mail liner.

MAN'S LEG INJURED ON KING STREET

A. Kalua Caught By Big Wheel And Limb Bruised

At 11:45 o'clock this morning a Hawaiian named A. Kalua had his right leg crushed above the knee through a large fly wheel he was unloading from a wagon, slipping and pinning the limb. The wagon was standing in front of E. O. Hall & Sons on King street and as soon as the accident happened a big crowd gathered around.

The police patrol wagon was quickly on the scene and as Sergeant Barry of the N. G. H. came along also, the man received first aid before being taken to the hospital.

The sergeant quickly improvised splints and bound the injured leg up so that the trip in the patrol wagon would not result in further pliklik. According to Sergeant Barry the injury is a simple bruise, and it aided the case a lot to have the damaged leg fixed up and thus obviate danger of complications setting in.
The wheel which did the damage was a large one and weighs many hundred pounds. The man and his mate were placing sticks under it to slide the wheel onto the sidewalk, when Kaluna's leg slipped underneath and the heavy weight all came down on his limb.

HOW PINCHOT FEELS

How Gifford Pinchot feels about it is shown in the following letter of appreciation received in the last mail from Washington: February 7, 1910.

Brig. Gen. John H. Soper, N. G. H., Honolulu, Hawaii.
Dear Sir:—I thank you for your letter of January 14. Such support and encouragement do a man good. Now that the lines are being clearly drawn between the special interests and the rest of us in the fight for conservation and the square deal, we shall win, for the people are on our side.

What has happened to me is of no consequence, except as it will help us to win.

Your letter was most welcome.

Sincerely yours,

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Please excuse delay. My mail has been too large to handle.

WATERFRONT NOTES

TACOMA—The British ship River-side, which is now in port undergoing repairs, has severely buffeted in her passage from Leith to Tacoma via Honolulu, is the evidence brought out in an extended protest being prepared by British Vice-Consul Agassiz. Aside from the carrying away of sails, which happened many times on the voyage, the wheel was broken, the shankers were carried away and the galley flooded. En route from Honolulu to Tacoma the ballast shifted, listing the vessel heavily to the starboard side.

In the past few years the Cheyenne has been practically rebuilt. She is particularly adapted to coast defense work. The Cheyenne carries two 12-inch guns, four 4-inch guns and three 6-pounders, together with smaller ordnance and coils rapid firers. She is of 3235 tons, two hundred and fifty-two feet on the water line, with a fifty-foot beam.

It is expected that the Marston will be ready to proceed to Pearl Harbor to discharge a quantity of material for the new dry docks there. The tug Intrepid will tow the schooner to the harbor.

The vessel brought a half dozen cabin passengers and other items of cargo included 130 sacks rice and 16 packages sundries. The Hall is scheduled to depart for a return trip to the Garden Island tomorrow afternoon.

THE DARK Andrew Welch, Captain Kelly, has sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu. The vessel left the California port yesterday and is understood to be bringing down a general cargo for the islands. The Welch comes to the agency of C. Brewer & Co.
